Manufactured Homes	A Manufactured Home is a dwelling unit built on a permanent chassis and attached to a permanent foundation system. Refer to applicable agency’s Selling Guide (FNMA or FHLMC) for any information not specified in this Product Profile. The manufactured home must be built in compliance with: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Federal Manufactured Home Construction and Safety Standards that were established June 15, 1976, as amended and in force at the time the home is manufactured; and • Additional requirements that appear in HUD regulations at 24 C.F.R. Part 3280. Compliance with these standards will be evidenced by the presence of both a HUD Data Plate and the HUD Certification Label. If the original or alternative documentation cannot be obtained for both the Data Plate/Compliance Certificate and the HUD Certification Label, the loan is not eligible for delivery to Fannie Mae. The HUD Data Plate/Compliance Certificate is a paper document located on the interior of the subject property that contains, among other things, the manufacturer’s name and trade/model number. In addition to the data required by Fannie Mae, the Data Plate includes pertinent information about the unit, including a list of factory-installed equipment. The HUD Certification Label, sometimes referred to as a HUD “seal” or “tag,” is a metal plate located on the exterior of each section of the home. The Manufactured Home Appraisal Report (Form 1004C) must show evidence of both the HUD Data Plate/Compliance Certificate and the HUD Certification Label. As an alternative to the original HUD Certification Label, the lender may be able to obtain a verification letter with the same information contained on the HUD Certification Label from the Institute for Building Technology and Safety (IBTS). A duplicate HUD Data Plate/Compliance Certificate may be available from IBTS or by contacting the In-Plant Primary Inspection Agency (IPIA) or the manufacturer. (A list of IPIA offices is posted on HUD’s website.) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The unit must not have been previously installed or occupied at any other site or location, except from the manufacturer or the dealer’s lot as a new unit. • The manufactured home must be a one-unit dwelling unit that is legally classified as real property and taxed and titled as such. New construction and any homes that have not yet been taxed and titled as real property are not permitted. • The towing hitch, wheels, and axles must be removed. The dwelling must assume the characteristics of site-built housing. • The borrower must own the land on which the manufactured home is situated in fee simple

- Rental income from a 1-unit Primary Residence may be considered as stable monthly income and eligible for use in qualifying provided it meets the following:
 - Rate/Term Refinance Only
 - The person providing the rental income and the Borrower:
 - Have resided together for at least one year
 - Will continue residing together in the new residence, and
 - The person providing the rental income provides appropriate documentation to evidence residency with the Borrower (i.e., copy of a driver's license, bill, bank statement, etc., that shows the address of that person to be the same as the Borrower's address)
 - Rental income from the person residing in the Mortgaged Premises Must:
 - Have been paid to the Borrower for the past 12 months on a regular basis
 - Can be verified by the Borrower with evidence showing receipt of regular payments of rental income to the Borrower for at least 9 of the past 12 months (i.e., copies of cancelled checks)
 - Must be averaged over 12 months for qualifying purposes when fewer than 12 months of payments are documented
 - Does not exceed 30% of total income used to qualify for the Mortgage
 - The Mortgage file must contain a written statement from the Borrower affirming:
 - The source of the rental income
 - The fact that the person providing the rental income has resided with the Borrower for the past year and intends to continue residing with the Borrower in subject property

- Rental income from a 2- to 4-unit Primary Residence that meets the requirements of Section 5306.1 of the selling guide may be considered as stable monthly income

Income Documentation: Income documentation requirements are outlined below. Refer to Freddie Mac Selling Guides for any areas not addressed.

Wage Earner:

- Most recent paystub including all year-to-date earnings dated no earlier than 30 days prior to the initial loan application date and most recent one or two years' W-2 as required by DU/LPA (W-2 transcripts are permissible in lieu of W-2s); or
 - Income validation obtained through DU Validation Service; or
 - Written Verification of Employment obtained through a 3rd party vendor such as, but not limited to TALX (The Work Number) except when:
 - The borrower works for an interested party to the transaction (Paystub and W-2s required)
 - Note: Information as of the date of the 3rd party verification the income must be current as of 35 days from the date of the verification

Self-Employed:

- Follow AUS tax return requirements.
 - In instances where DU/LPA allows for only 1-year tax returns on a self-employed borrower(s), the tax returns must be for the most recent tax year. A current year extension and the previous year's tax returns will not be accepted.
 - Documentation or evaluation is not required when a borrower or co-borrower is qualified using only income that is not derived from self-employment and self-employment is a secondary and separate source of income (or loss).
